Snookered!

Fame has gone to Jersey Shore diva Snooki's poufed-up head! Insiders tell Star that while she was in L.A. for the MTV Movie Awards on June 6, she pranced into Platinum Image Spa and demanded more than $300 worth of NovaLash eyelash extensions for her stint on the red carpet. The next day, she returned without an appointment for a manicure. "Snooki seemed totally unappreciative," says a source, "like she expects special treatment." Let's see what kind of ratings the second season of Shore gets, Snooks, then we'll talk!
